RE: Clinton Dixon v. South Carolina Electric & Gas Company
Reply to Mr. Dixon's Response to Motion to Dismiss of South Carolina
Electric & Gas Company
Docket No. 2017-331-E

Dear Mr. Dong:

On December 4, 2017, Mr. Clinton Dixon filed a letter stating that he "would like to appeal the decision" of the Public Service Commission of South Carolina ("Commission") in Commission Order No. 2017-723 in the above-referenced docket and that he "would like to have a[] hearing [d]ate." The Commission has labelled Mr. Dixon's letter as a Petition for Rehearing and/or Reconsideration of Commission Order No. 2017-723 ("Petition"). By way of this letter, South Carolina Electric & Gas Company ("SCE&G") hereby responds to the Petition and respectfully requests that the Commission deny the Petition for the reasons set forth herein.

Commission Regulation 103-854(A) provides that "[a]ll petitions for rehearing or reconsideration shall conform to R. 103-825." And, Commission Regulation 103-825(A)(4) provides that a petition for rehearing or reconsideration must "set forth clearly and concisely: (a) [t]he factual and legal issues forming the basis for the petition; (b) [t]he alleged error or errors in the Commission order; and (c) [t]he statutory provisions or other authority on which the petition is based."

In his Petition, Mr. Dixon does not allege any error whatsoever in Commission Order No. 2017-723, and he does not set forth any actual or legal issues or cite any statutory provisions or other authority on which his Petition is based. As such, Mr. Dixon's Petition is plainly deficient and without merit and should be denied.

Based upon the foregoing, SCE&G respectfully requests that Mr. Dixon's Petition be denied.
